

FAX WARS ASSIGNMENT

The undersigned does hereby assign, sell, and transfer to the undersigned Consumer Crusade, Inc., Assignee and its designated agent, all rights of title and interest in all unsolicited telefacsimile (junk fax) transmission(s) Assignor has received by Assignor, as well as all attendant rights under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, as well as all rights under state and local consumer protection statutes.

It is understood that Assignor may cancel this Assignment , at any time, by not sending or delivering any additional faxes to Assignee.

Assignor, as consideration for this Assignment, agrees to accept the sum of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) for each fax that Assignee or its designated agent successfully processes and upon which it receives a monetary recovery. *

Assignee and/or its designated agent shall pursue recovery of monies allowed by law for transmission of said unsolicited telefacsimile (junk fax) transmissions in its sole discretion as it deems appropriate and Assignor acknowledges that not all unsolicited telefacsimile transmissions result in money recovery because of the inability to identify or locate senders or because of the financial condition of sender's, or any other factors which Assignee or its designated agent deem to make the matter uncollectable.

By signature below, Assignor states that all of the unsolicited telefacsimile (junk fax) transmission(s) attached hereto are originals received on the fax number and the date stamped on same and that Assignor owns same and has the right to assign, sell, convey and transfer of all said rights to the Assignee and its designated agent.

Signed and attested to by Assignor as set forth below:

ATTENTION: Your payment of $25.00 per fax is based on our normal settlement process. In the event that Consumer Crusade Inc., or it's agents, in their sole discretion, deem it prudent to settle for a lesser than normal amount, your payment may be prorated accordingly. As an example: If the settlement is for half of the normal amount on a particular junk fax, your payment would be half of $25.00 (or $12.50). You are never responsible for, or required to pay any collection costs or administration costs. Collection costs and administration costs are never deducted from your payments.
